

Welcome to Air Force Sergeants Association, Chapter 1075,

Your membership and support in this prestigious organization will go a long way in providing support to the United States Air Force enlisted members. The mission of AFSA is to advocate improved quality-of-life benefits and economic fairness that will support the wellbeing of all Air Force enlisted personnel and their families. Another charge of AFSA is that "...we unite to further the aims and objectives of this Association." We are excited to work in expanding those positive objectives of the chapter and HQ AFSA International in conjunction with the local community and the United States Air Force.

As members of AFSA, we all are needed to support the programs and committees that will be created throughout the year to benefit the enlisted personnel not only here in the local area but also throughout the world. So stay tuned, because we know that you interest will be peaked and you will want to share your time, ideas of expertise, and dedication. Plus being on a committee is a good way to meet your fellow chapter members and more importantly, you will directly impacting and shaping the path of AFSA-1075.

You will also be able to benefit from an extensive range of legislative and professional resources as well as get substantial discounts on products and services offered from businesses that support AFSA. The full range of these resources and benefits can be on the HQ AFSA website at www.afsahq.org.

Feel free to contact anyone on the executive council if you have any questions, suggestions or concerns.

Once again welcome and thank for being active member and supporter of the enlisted men and women of the best Air Force in the world. We look forward to providing you with a lifelong positive experience that will help benefit your professional career and your personal life.

Yours in AFSA,

President, AFSA-1075
